“ONE PEOPLE, ONE DESTINY? THE FUTURE OF INEQUALITY IN THE EAC”

THE FUTURE OF INEQUALITY IN THE EAC

Time: 10:00 AM Date: 22/11/13

THE HILTON HOTEL

The report will be launched at 10.00am on Friday 22nd, 2013 at the Hilton Hotel, in Nairobi, Kenya. By the Speaker of the East African Legislative Assembly in the presence of the Honourable Members of the East African Legislative Assembly.

Agenda: Raise awareness about the EAC and catalyse an informed engagement and participation in the process of East Africa’s regional integration, the Society for International Development (SID), with sponsorship and support from TradeMark East Africa (TMEA) has prepared The State of East Africa Report 2013 whose theme is “One People, One Destiny?: The Future of Inequality in the EAC”.

The Report explores the current status of income and wealth inequality both between and within the five East African nations, identifies the drivers of inequality, and imagines the possible and plausible outlooks on the future of inequality in the region. The report raises a number of strategic economic, social and political questions to engage all East Africans in a robust and enriching discussion about the East African Community integration process.
